Business Owner Disputes

Morrill Cole, a Certified Civil Trial Attorney, is the senior litigator in the firm. Prior to joining the firm in 1955, he spent two years on the Harvard Law School faculty teaching in programs focused on litigation skills. He has practiced law with the firm since returning to New Jersey in 1955.

Mr. Cole has been involved in the trial of significant litigation since joining the firm. His trial work has focused primarily in the commercial and business area. His cases have involved antitrust claims, trademark and unfair competition claims, disputed control of closely held corporations, securities fraud and a broad range of business litigation. Mr. Cole combines the practice of corporate and commercial litigation with transactional work and counseling in the conception and formation of businesses.

Over the years, Mr. Cole has worked in a broad variety of civic matters. While in Paterson, New Jersey, he served as Chairman of the Community Relations Committee of the Paterson Jewish Community Council. He was a founder of the Paterson Task Force for Community Affairs, the local arm of President Johnson's Anti-Poverty Program. He served as Chairman of Paterson's Redevelopment Agency initiating much of the Urban Renewal infrastructure and office and housing construction developed in Paterson in the 1970s.

Mr. Cole served for many years on the Passaic County Ethics Committee and on the New Jersey Supreme Court's Committee on the Unauthorized Practice of Law.

NOTEWORTHY

Mr. Cole has been honored consistently with peer recognition as an outstanding litigator. The Best Lawyers of America® directory has listed him in their Commercial Litigation section every year since it started publication in 1987. For the past four years, Mr. Cole's name
